

FOR RELEASE: MARCH 26, 2019

84% OF U.S. VOTERS WANT TO SEE MUELLER REPORT, QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY NATIONAL POLL FINDS;
DEMS DIVIDED ON SUPPORT FOR ISRAELIS OR PALESTINIANS

Special Counsel Robert Mueller's report should be made public, American voters say 84 – 9 percent in a Quinnipiac University National Poll released today. Republicans say 75 – 17 percent the report should be made public and every other listed party, gender, education, age and racial group supports making the report public by even wider margins.

Mueller conducted a “fair” investigation, 55 percent of voters say, as 26 percent say it was not fair, the independent Quinnipiac (KWIN-uh-pe-ack) University National Poll finds. The survey was conducted March 21 through March 25.

But voters are divided on another question, as 49 percent say the investigation was “legitimate” and 43 percent say it was a “witch hunt.”

There is a wide gender gap as men say 50 – 43 percent the investigation was a “witch hunt,” and women say 55 – 37 percent it was “legitimate.”

Democrats are divided on the Mideast situation as 27 percent say their sympathies lie more with the Israelis and 26 percent say their sympathies lie more with the Palestinians, with 46 percent undecided.

Overall, American voters sympathize with the Israelis over the Palestinians 47 – 16 percent, with 37 percent undecided. This compares with 54 – 15 percent sympathy for the Israelis over the Palestinians, with 30 percent undecided, in a January 13, 2017 poll.

The U.S. is too supportive of Israel, 24 percent of voters say, as 14 percent say the U.S. is not supportive enough and 47 percent say U.S. support for Israel is “about right.”

“We want to know more, say voters who have read the bullet points and believe the Mueller investigation was fair, but would like to read it in full,” said Tim Malloy, assistant director of the Quinnipiac University Poll.

“But was it a witch hunt? That remains the stuff of dinner table discussion. A stunningly sharp divide, as men say the investigation was a witch hunt and women say it was legit.

Quinnipiac University Poll/March 26, 2019 – page 2

“President Donald Trump embraces embattled Israeli Prime Minister Bibi Netanyahu, while overall sympathy for the Israelis slips a bit among voters,” Malloy added.

American voters give President Donald Trump a negative 39 – 55 percent job approval rating, compared to a negative 38 – 55 percent approval rating March 5.

President Trump is mentally stable, 48 percent of voters say, as 44 percent say he is not stable. Voters say 72 – 21 percent that Trump is not a good role model for children.

And voters say 63 – 28 percent that Trump should stop tweeting from his personal account. Republicans say 49 – 39 percent that Trump should keep tweeting, the only listed group that supports this practice.

“Stop tweeting! American voters say 2-1. But from the GOP, ‘Good with us. Tweet on, Mr. President,’” Malloy said.

Health Care

American voters say 55 – 32 percent they would prefer to improve rather than replace the health care system in the U.S. No listed group prefers replacing the health care system.

But 43 percent say it’s a “good idea” to remove the current health care system and replace it with a single payer system in which Medicare is expanded to cover all medical expenses, while 45 percent say “Medicare for all” is a “bad idea.”

Support is 51 – 30 percent for keeping the current health care system while allowing all adults the option of buying into Medicare. Among Republicans, 43 percent support this Medicare buy-in option, with 39 percent opposed.

White Supremacists

White supremacist groups pose an immediate threat to the U.S., 42 percent of voters say, as 20 percent say these groups are a threat, but not an immediate one, and 29 percent say these groups are not a threat.

From March 21 – 25, Quinnipiac University surveyed 1,358 voters nationwide with a margin of error of +/- 3.3 percentage points, including the design effect.

The Quinnipiac University Poll, directed by Douglas Schwartz, Ph.D., conducts gold standard surveys using random digit dialing with live interviewers calling landlines and cell phones. The Quinnipiac University Poll conducts nationwide surveys and polls in more than a dozen states on national and statewide elections, as well as public policy issues.
